

Capability Statement

Summary:

Elmeridge have been leaders in the production and distribution of custom-made cables since 1987, supplying a wide range of low, medium and high voltage special cables and stock items to a growing worldwide market.

Mission:

To ensure the success of our customers through a tried and trusted relationship, tailored to solutions and exceptional service time and time again.

Values:

We are totally committed to professionalism, responsiveness and developing long term business relationships with all our customers.

Excellence:

We strive for excellence in all that we do and continue to improve as a business. Our focus is to provide the best quality and service to meet the individual needs and objectives of our customers.

Teamwork:

We have a dedicated team that are totally committed to good communication with our customers, with the utmost respect and confidentiality.

Integrity:

We have conducted our business for almost four decades being open and honest, knowledgeable, professional, and reliable with all our customers.

Approach:

We work as a team and combine our strengths and expertise to add value for our customers. We have extensive knowledge of a wide range of products that have been utilised throughout all the market sectors we work in.